

Present So People Will Listen CPR for a Great Presentation

Workshop Overview

Why is it that some people speak for an hour and it feels like 10 minutes, and others speak for 10 minutes and it feels like an hour?

In a world of constant communication, we all have to choose which voices we will tune out and which voices we will tune in.

In this 6-hour workshop, learn how to captivate your audience and deliver a powerful message--learn the secret behind presenting so people will listen!

Bring a current presentation or an idea for a presentation and our facilitators will guide you.

In this 6-hour workshop, you will have the chance to plan an upcoming presentation by working through the following objectives:

- Manage Fear
- Answer the Questions:
 - Content: What am I going to say?
 - Construction: How am I going to say it?
 - Connection: To whom am I speaking?
- Follow Simple Principles of Effective Design
